Subject:- Hostile and Vindictive attitude of Shri Vinod Kumar Singh, Term Cell officer at Telephone Bhawan R, Block, Patna against BSNL staff – Intervention reg.

Respected Srivastav jee,

We write to you with a very heavy heart to seek your urgent intervention.

Sequel to call of central Trade unions and endorsed by BSNL unions the general strike took place in the PSU on second Sept, 2015. The strike has been peaceful in the entire country. However, an ugly incident took place at Patna due to erratic behavior of Term Cell officers. This has necessitated a reference to you.

It is stated that the all DOT and central Excise officers entered in the office without any disturbance and hurdle. The officer, Shri Vinod Kumar Singh, Term Cell officer on the day came and questioned the employees reasons for strike and threatened them for dire consequences including arrest by the police. He even tried to manhandle the employees. As per advice of CGM and PGM, TD the union representatives complained to "Term Cell in charge about, Shri S.S. Singh but all in vain.

According to report the two officers S/S Vinod Kumar Singh and K.N. Roy again came near to striking employees and provoked them by taking their photographs we are surprised as when the employees objected the officers used offensive and abusive words against them and brought the police. The said officers have lodged FIR against the employees resulting in deep anger amongst them. The atmosphere is quite hot due to unbecoming attitude of said officers.

We urge upon you to please use your good offices so that FIR is withdrawn and congenial atmosphere is established at Patna TD. Timely action is needed to prevent occurrence of unpleasant situation.

With best regards,

Shri Anupam Srivastav
CMD
BSNL
New Delhi.

Yours sincerely

(Chandeshwar Singh)
